STAT

This is to advise you of the outcome of our consideration of your interest in becoming associated with this Agency.

STAT

Since your meeting with [redacted] on 26 June, our senior officials have been reviewing your extensive background in light of our current needs and opportunities. Unfortunately, we have not been able to identify a position which is commensurate with your many talents and interests. This is no reflection on your own excellent qualifications but rather that our needs are few and are limited generally to entrance-level career trainees.

I appreciate your offer to be of service to our Agency and you may be sure we will get in touch with you if a suitable position should develop in the near future.

Faithfully,

/s/ Vernon A. Walters

STAT Page 2 Memo Re [redacted] Applicant

STAT [redacted] is a very sophisticated gentleman, intelligent, and understanding that his possible usefulness to our Agency would be a unique arrangement, especially so because of the present restrictions. He was not given encouragement and no specifics were discussed. He was told only that an interview report would be written and that his credentials would be reviewed more extensively in Headquarters, in light of our personnel requirements. It would appear that he may have the makings of a [redacted]

STAT [redacted] is assuming he will have follow-up correspondence from Headquarters, and he is eager to have a reading as soon as possible, so that he may make other decisions by the end of summer, i.e. schooling for his fifteen year old son and whether or not to accept other banking offers. If he does not have a reading within a month, he probably will contact General Walters for an explanation of his status with our Agency.

STAT

Dear [REDACTED]

Thank you for your recent letter. It was good to hear from you.

STAT

I appreciate your generous offer to be of service to this organization. I have enclosed a set of our preliminary application forms for you to complete and return to us at your convenience. If you have your own resume, you may wish to send it instead of the enclosed form. In addition, our Director of Personnel has asked his representative in the [REDACTED] to get in touch with you in the next two or three weeks to arrange a time for an interview. This meeting will help us to explore any possible opportunities that might be commensurate with your excellent qualifications.

We look forward to receiving [REDACTED] report of his meeting with you.
